

Brandevue Pte Ltd

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Brandevue Pte Ltd is a Singapore based organization that combines Branding & Positioning know how with Learning & Development and Information Technology. Its blueprint offers superior value to small and medium sized companies in Singapore, China and other South East Asian countries in the area of marketing, brand building and positioning and thus in overall business growth enhancement.

Every business is in reality in marketing business as there is no business without marketing. Branding comprising of strong corporate identity with sound message that is communicated well and is visually attractive and enticing along with the whole corporate branding composition is one of the cornerstones of the marketing contributing significantly to the business growth.

However, many companies and especially SMEs face significant issues in the area of marketing and brand building and management. There is a lack of strong local Singapore brands rising from SMEs level. There are several reasons:

*Minimal formal education or practical experience with managing brand holistically and with branding in general
Limited methods and systems to support the management and enhancement of brand building for SMEs (tools are either unaffordable or incomprehensible)*

The Brandevue – software branding platform resolves the brand building predicaments and problems of business owners and marketing managers.

Brandevue's Vision

To create a comprehensive user-friendly platform that provides the structure to manage brand holistically, the content to develop and manage brand resources and the training via interactive e-learning and an artificial intelligence platform to develop one's knowledge and skills in the area of total brand building and management.

Users, be it business owners or Marketing Managers, will be able to promptly and conveniently learn the basics and more about branding and positioning, train on-line and practice in any business environment at their own speed based on individual company and brand needs.

Branding & positioning will become accessible to all companies and especially SMEs as the market understanding, knowledge and practical application of the branding basics will become easy to learn, use and apply. This knowledge and tools would bring companies to completely new level.

Thanks to the Interactive Digital Media intelligent e-learning platform, a self-learning artificial intelligence platform, video based learning and other self enhancing smart digital tools, each implementation will be customized to organizational requirements.

At the same time, the Brandevue platform allows users to traditionally manage brand's information and use it for daily brand management activities or for on-line training. Users will also be able to generate customized corporate identity and other branding elements thanks to sophisticated tools and creative platform that will be developed to enable more and more people to become “professional designers” in no time with minimal design skills.

The Brandevue platform provides a vault of branding consulting knowledge and experience at low cost and makes it accessible online to companies and individuals. This ensures that companies will be able to focus on growing the business while brand will support that mission in all aspects on all battlefields.

The founding management team and the cornerstones of Brandevue Pte Ltd's development are: Danny who has over 10 years of practical branding and hands on graphical design experience..... Johny ?? who has 10 years of brand management experience in 14 countries, XYZ who has 10 years of the latest technology experience and Dasha of NextLogic Pte Ltd who has 10 years of software solutions implementation experience and practical sales, marketing and branding experience from marketing & software companies in Europe and Asia.

SUMMARY

There is no product or solution currently available on the market that allows users to utilize the potential of branding and information technology to such a level as Brandevue aims for.

In the current global & more and more competitive environment its is our responsibility to utilize all we can to bring important aspects of business building down to everyone so we all will be able to run professional and unique business while saving our valuable resources like time and money. Branding does not have to be a privilege of MNCs with huge marketing and branding budgets for expensive consultants and designers. We believe it should be available to all who are willing to learn it and use it for their business benefit. Eventually, if SMEs will be able to create more value in their own businesses, everyone will benefit.

We believe that Brandevue will provide all round added value to companies that want to grow and perform at their best.

Brandevue aims to redefine the way brand building and management is approached and utilized to achieve organizational success.
